

I understand the CBA is challenging Indiana's Telephone Consumers Privacy Law. As an Indiana resident, I DO NOT want my phone to ring from anyone trying to sell me services whether or not I already do business with them. Telemarketing easily gets out of hand and I do not want the little precious family time I have with my children interrupted by telemarketers. Please do not allow the CBA to prevail in their action!